Mr. J. Costa,
100 Montgomery St.
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mr. Costa:

Pardon my writing in English, as my secretary does not understand your noble language.

Thank you for your check for the Song Books. I trust that they met your expectations.

Do you know if any one of Mr. Tenor Cebrian's family is at 1801 Octavia? He ordered a large number of the Song Books, but I have just had a letter from him on his way to Spain, and do not know what disposition he has made of them. If you can tell me who to address in the matter, I shall be again your debtor.

With high regard and best wishes,

Sincerely Yours,
